Pearson BTEC Level 3 Diploma in Adult Care (England)

During this qualification you will develop your skills in working with and supporting people in a range of situations to meet their needs and assist them in daily tasks.
You will support people by meeting their healthcare or social needs and requirements as necessary, and develop your skills by working with and supporting people in a range of situations.

Development of skills is supported by underpinning knowledge. You will actively engage yourself in your professional development and agree a personal development plan to identify areas for your own learning and development, record your progress on your development plan and reflect on your progress against it.

This qualification contains 9 mandatory units and a large number of optional units within it to help you gain skills and knowledge in areas which are relevant to your job role.

Mandatort Units:
Promote Communication
Engage in Personal Development
Promote Equality and Inclusion
Principles for Implementing Duty of Care
Principles of Safeguarding
The Role of the Health and Social Care Worker
Promote Person-Centred Approaches
Promote and Implement Health and Safety
Promote Good Practice in Handling Information

Examples of Optional Units:
Understand the Process and Experience of Dementia
Introduction to Personalisation in Social Care
Principles of Self-Directed Support
Understand Models of Disability
Recognise Indications of Substance Misuse and Refer Individuals to Specialists
Provide Support to Manage Pain and Discomfort
Contribute to Raising Awareness of Health Issues
Support the Development of Community Partnerships
Support Individuals to Live at Home
Support Individuals with Specific Communication Needs
Support Individuals with Self-Directed Support
Support Individuals in the use of Assistive Technology

Funding Avaliable

If you need to discuss the course contents or the different payment options, please speak to one of our course advisers on +442083185860